This musical score page contains measures 273 through 278. It features a complex arrangement of staves, including vocal parts and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is D major (two sharps). The score includes various musical notations such as chords, arpeggios, and melodic lines. The piano part is written for four staves, with the right hand playing chords and the left hand playing a more active melodic line. The vocal parts are written for four staves, with the top two staves in treble clef and the bottom two in bass clef. The score is divided into measures by vertical bar lines, and the measures are numbered 273 through 278.

This musical score page, numbered 280, contains measures 280 through 286. It is written for a piano and voice ensemble. The piano part is divided into four systems of staves. The first system consists of three staves (treble, treble, and bass clef) with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The second system consists of two staves (treble and bass clef) with a key signature of one sharp. The third system consists of two staves (treble and bass clef) with a key signature of one sharp. The fourth system consists of two staves (treble and bass clef) with a key signature of one sharp. The voice part is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and bar lines. The piano part features complex rhythmic patterns, including sixteenth and thirty-second notes, and rests. The voice part features a melodic line with various note values and rests.

This musical score page contains measures 287 through 294. The score is written for a large ensemble, including strings, woodwinds, brass, and piano. The key signature is D major (two sharps). The time signature is 4/4. The score is organized into systems of staves. The first system (measures 287-288) features a complex texture with multiple staves. The second system (measures 289-290) continues the complex texture. The third system (measures 291-292) shows a change in the piano part, with the right hand playing a dense chordal texture and the left hand playing a rhythmic pattern. The fourth system (measures 293-294) concludes the page with a final chordal texture in the piano part.
